Holiday Motor Traffic.

What the maximum of motor vehicle traffic is going to be on pleasant Sundays and holidays this summer, was oays and holidays this summer, was indicated in a marked way on Memorial day, the first real good weather holiday of the year. So dense was the traffic, everything with a motor on it being on the road, that a good many drivers have decided that there is going to be more worry and risk in ing to be more worry and risk in week end, Sunday and holiday driving this season than there is of pleasure. Machines rolled by in swarms all day long and he was indeed a nerveless driver who finished the day without feeling a quivver now and then.

Patriotic Exercises Monday. Memorial day was impressively ob-served by the patriotic societies of served by the patriotic societies of Danielson, the program being carried out as arranged. At 1 o'clock the members of the G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, Spanish War Veterans, escorted by the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., formed a procession at G. A. The county commissioners have taken out a liability policy covering employes of the county under the provisions of the workingmen's compensation law. The insurance does not cover prisoners who may be sent out on jobs form the Windham countries on a milk wagon, backed down out of the vehicle and directly in front of a touring car being driven along very slowly by Treasurer Clarence A. Potter of the Brooklyn Savings bank. Both vehicles were traveling south on Main street, just east of the railroad crossing. The boy was knocked down and the whole length of the car passed over him, but he escaped with no more than a cut in the head, which was closed with two stitches at the office of Dr. F. P. Todd. The accident was one in which the boy was entirely to blame and had not Mr. Potter been driving very, very slowly, after sounding a signal to the people on the milk wagon, the boy surely would have been killed.

Kenehan heroically offered himself as a sacrifice to save the little boy, swerving his machine sharply and reaching out to push the boy out of harm's way. In a measure he was successful. The machine did not strike the boy, who fell heavily to the ground as Kanahan pushed him, it was afterwards related to an official. Kenahan in turn took a spill and tore a pedal off his machine. He escaped without serious hurts.

The injured boy was picked up and carried into the Chartler home. A first examination showed a broken right thigh bone and Injuries about the head. At that time the injuries were not considered as of a fatal nature, but it was afterwards determined that a hemorrhage of the brain occurred and the boy died in a couple of hours.
